It isn't often that the freshmen of "Old Midd" succeed in outwitting their hereditary foes of the sophomore class; therefore '02 is entitled to all the bouquets it has been throwing at itself since the brilliant coup of last Thursday, when the class got off to Brandon and held their initial banquet without giving an inkling of their intention to the omniscient and blase enemy. The freshmen took the afternoon train to Beldens while the sophs were at recitations, got off there and came back on the accommodation train, passing through to Brandon. When the sophs discovered the absence of the freshmen it was too late to mix up their plans.

War Investigation in Vermont.

Ex-Gov. U. A. Woodbury, who is a member of the war investigation committee, spent last week at his home in Burlington and conducted a branch of the investigation. Witnesses from the 3d United States cavalry at Fort Ethan Allen, from the 21st infantry at Plattsburg, N. Y., and from the 1st Vermont infantry were summoned to testify on the conduct of the campaign. Most of the unfavorable testimony was directed against the medical department of the army. Barring the poor medical attendance and the unfavorable climatic conditions, several of the older officers said they had suffered more in Indian campaigns in the west than in the Santiago campaign. The investigation was not public, the only persons present being Commissioner Woodbury, a stenographer and reporters. No witness was allowed in the room while another was testifying.

War-Time Prices in Middlebury.

The record book containing account of expenses in building the graded school-house, with the letters, bills and contracts of the building committee, have been placed in the Sheldon Art museum for permanent preservation. Although the war had been closed about three years, war prices prevailed in nearly all the items. Lumber was $17 per thousand, with $4 extra for planing both sides; nails $5.50 per keg, and board $4 75 per week.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Martha Gilman passed from this life Nov. 2, 1898. She was a member of Needham W. R. C. and was a faithful member, an earnest worker and will be missed.

One by one the Father calleth Those we love to endless rest, And our hearts, tho' filled with anguish, Can but cry "He knoweth best." But a time not distant cometh, When we shall tread the vast unknown, We shall find our ransomed dear ones Seated round the great white throne.

Therefore, Resolved that we emulate her example in faithful attendance at our God; Resolved that we tender the bereaved family our heartfelt sympathy in this their sorrow;

Resolved that our charter and badges be draped in mourning for thirty days;

Resolved that a copy of these resolutions be tendered the bereaved family, sent to our weekly paper for publication and entered upon the record our Order.

COUNTY SUNDAY SCHOOLS.

The Fifth Annual Convention Held at Weybridge.

The fifth annual convention of the Addison County Sunday School association was held Thursday and Friday, Nov. 3 and 4, at the Weybridge Congregational church. The weather was fine, the programme was good, the attendance was large and the result was a profitable convention.

The principal addresses were delivered by C. W. Ergood of Bellows Falls, and by Rev. G. L. Story, state secretary. Addresses were also delivered by Rev. Alfred Cornell of Monkton, Rev. J. H. Hoffman of New Haven, and Rev. R. J. Barton of Salisbury. Reports from the schools of the county showed the work to be in a flourishing condition. The officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, Rev. W. A. Kinzie, Bristol; secretary, R. H. Holmes, Shoreham; treasurer, W. D. Woodman, Vergennes.

The following resolution was adopted: Resolved, That inasmuch as our accredited lawgivers at the capital of the Green Mountain State have thrust upon us the subject of temperance, and as we, the people, are vitally interested in this reform, we, the members of the Addison County Sunday schools, wish to place on record our hearty agreement with the deliberations of some of the great religious bodies of America, that to license the sale of intoxicating drinks as a beverage is a sin against God and man, and that we without reserve declare for a prohibitory law for Vermont, a law so long the pride of our state, and that we are opposed to any form of license law.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to tender our heartfelt thanks to all who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our wife and daughter. "So the dying saint departing Joyful takes the heavenly way, Life and time and glances blending In the light of perfect day." ROLLIN MATHEW, M. and Mrs. JOSEPH ADAMS.
